A Homeland-Diaspora Story
The Lord spoke to Moses saying:
Speak to the children of Israel, and have them take for Me an offering; from every person whose heart inspires him to generosity, you shall take My offering.
~Exodus Chapter 25

And they spoke to Moses, saying: "The people are bringing very much, more than is enough for the labor of the articles which the Lord had commanded to do."
So Moses commanded, and they announced in the camp, saying: "Let no man or woman do any more work for the offering for the Holy." So the people stopped bringing.
~Exodus Chapter 36
There are eight levels of charity, each greater than the next.

1. A gift or loan, or entering into a partnership.

2. Give to the poor without knowing to whom one gives, and without the recipient knowing from who he received.

3. One knows to whom one gives, but the recipient does not know his benefactor.

4. One does not know to whom one gives, but the poor person does know his benefactor.

5. One gives to the poor person directly into his hand, but gives before being asked.

6. One gives to the poor person after being asked.

7. One gives inadequately, but gives gladly and with a smile.

8. One gives unwillingly.
