Yom Ha'Atzmaut 2019

Available: May 7 - 16, 2019

A Special Performance in the U.S. Consortium Communities

THE PERFORMERS

ISRAEL DAYAN

Israel is an accomplished Israeli vocalist, guitarist, lyricist and composer who has been performing in Israel and abroad for more than 30 years. He is one of the most prominent Israeli musicians who has been leading "sing along" evenings in front of thousands of Israeli audiences. His performances have offered Israelis evenings of pure pleasure. The beautiful songs performed are guaranteed enthusiastic audience participation at every cultural event.

In addition, Israel's DVD sales have been very successful both in Israel and abroad. Listeners enjoy his renditions of Israeli songs which are filmed in various landscapes of Israel.

SHOVAL DAYAN

Shoval, Israel's 23 year old daughter, is a very talented singer and guitarist. While in high school majoring in theater, she was a member of the "Amal Singers" which is a very popular song troupe made up of talented high school vocalists. The "Amal Singers" performed throughout Israel, France and the US.

In addition to performing with her father, Shoval is studying Special Education at Seminar Gordon College of Education located in Haifa, Israel.

SAGIV DAYAN

Sagiv is Israel's 14 year old son. He is in eighth grade and is an outstanding singer and pianist who has appeared in many local cultural events as well as in school events.

THE PERFORMANCE

Israel, Shoval and Sagiv perform both together and individually, each demonstrating his/her unique talents. The family closeness creates a chemistry on stage that radiates joy to the audience.

Technical specifications required: 3 microphone stands with 3 microphones, sound mixer with singing effect at least 8 channels, 2 monitors for singers, screen + video projector + VGA cable + HDMI cable to connect a computer, direct box stereo for PC connection, and direct box for guitar.
