

PARTNERSHIP2GETHER COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT COMMITTEE PRESENTS:

Western Galilee Visionaries Delegation Available February 2-19, 2019

Using Creativity and Theater to Connect and Bridge Conflict and Diversity

LEARN FROM TWO UNIQUE ISRAELI VISIONARIES

This delegation of cutting-edge experts from the Western Galilee offer their time to share information through lectures, workshops and informal/formal meetings.

Peter Harris, PhD, Chair of the Theatre Studies Department at the Western Galilee Academic College and a lecturer at Tel Aviv University Theatre Arts dept. His research interest is 'Inter/multi-cultural dialogue in the dramatic space'. Prof. Harris has international experience and expertise in applying "theatre of the oppressed" practices for empowering human rights issues, dialogue in conflicted communities, relations in the work place, and prisoner and substance user rehabilitation.

Guy Itzhak Alon, A 26 year old from the Western Galilee and alumni of the WG College Community Theatre and Education programs. Guy is an actor, singer, theatre creator and facilitator of theatre groups in the community.

Guy wrote, produced and played in "The GAY Show," a successful solo performance for teens and adults. The play deals and shares the experiences of the LGBTQ community in the geo-social periphery of Israel.

COSTS

Each hosting community is responsible for housing, meals and ground costs during the delegation visit. Avital Ben Dror, Community Engagement Committee Coordinator, will be joining this delegation.

INFORMATION

To schedule this delegation in your community contact:
Avital Ben Dror at Avitalbe@jafi.org

WHAT IS PARTNERSHIP2GETHER?

PARTNERSHIP2GETHER, a program of The Jewish Agency for Israel and The Jewish Federations of North America, promotes people-to-people relationships through cultural, social, medical, educational and economic programs. This Partnership is between the 14 communities of the U.S. Central Area Consortium, Budapest, and Israel's Western Galilee.

CONNECT & MAKE A DIFFERENCE

www.westerngalilee.org.il

